

Edwardian
£825.00

A classic Edwardian three-row gate link bracelet, c.1910, crafted in 9ct yellow gold. This elegant piece features a series of long, rectangular "gate" links interspersed with smaller circular connectors, creating a flexible and comfortable silhouette on the wrist.

The bracelet is distinguished by its seamless integrated box clasp, which is discreetly hidden within the final link and bears a crisp '9ct' fineness stamp. Complete with its original safety chain, this bracelet represents the understated sophistication of early 20th-century British jewellery. In excellent condition for its age, it is a timeless staple that works perfectly as a standalone piece or layered within a modern bracelet stack.
