

18ct Gold D
£1,050.00

A beautiful antique 18ct yellow gold diamond and pearl ring, dating to circa 1900. The design features a classic five-stone style arrangement with a graduated row of creamy natural pearls, set between shimmering old-cut diamonds in traditional claw settings.

This is a refined and wearable piece with elegant period charm — perfect as a stacking ring, a subtle statement, or a meaningful antique gift. The ring is further supported by a charming personal engraving to the inner band, giving it a unique sense of history and sentiment.
