

Charm (suitcase) in 9ct Gold date circa 1960, Lilly's Attic since 2001
£150.00

Q: What does it mean living out of a suitcase?

A: The phrase to live out of a suitcase is a correct expression that means to stay very briefly in several places, with only the belongings in your suitcase.

|                       |           |
|-----------------------|-----------|
| Period         | 1960s     |
| Condition      | Very good |
| Materials      | Gold      |
| Carat for Gold | 9 K       |

Antique ref: Lilly's Attic - SHAPIRO & Co