

Tiffany & Co. Turquoise Diamond And White Gold Crescent Brooch, Circa 1960
£7,250.00

A vintage Tiffany & Co. turquoise, diamond and white gold crescent brooch, set with three rows of graduating, cabochon-cut turquoise, interspersed with eight-cut diamonds, with an approximate total weight of 0.30ct, in spitched, bezel settings, with pierced gallery below, with a pin and roller catch fitting, mounted in 18ct white gold, signed Tiffany e C, in a cartouche, Italian, circa 1960.

In Victorian symbolism the crescent or new moon represented a new relationship. Hopeful it will "wax" into matrimony. This vintage brooch continues the tradition.

Origin	Italian
Period	1960s
Condition	Very good
Materials	White Gold
Main Gemstone	Turquoise
Main Gemstone Cut	Cabochon Cut
Carat for Gold	18 K
Dimensions	Height 30.5mm, width 24.8mm

Secondary Gemstone

Diamond

Antique ref: S20123B