

Japanese imari teapot and cover, Edo period (1603-1868)

POA

Japanese imari teapot and cover, Edo period (1603-1868), decorated with scrolling chrysanthemum and foliage above a band of waves, the handle with moulded shells to base.

Height: 14.6cm. (5 3/4in.)

Condition: chip to spout, cover and moulded shell.

Material and Technique

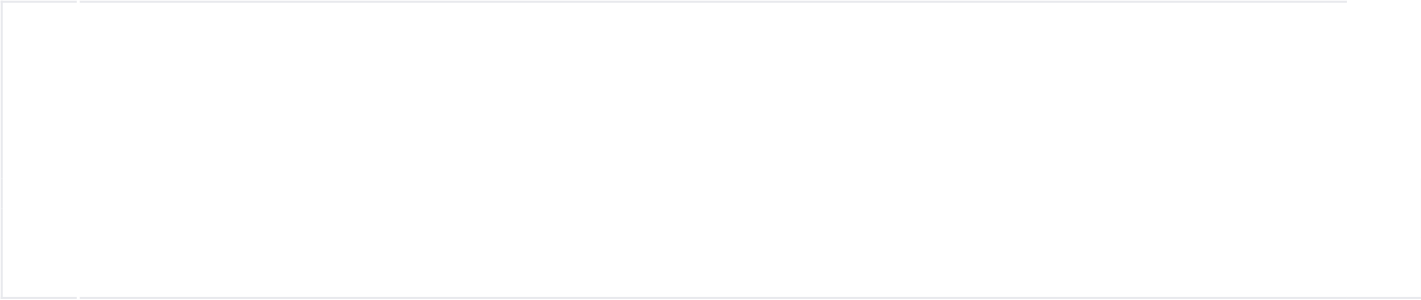

Porcelain with underglaze blue and overglaze enamel decoration in the Imari palette

Origin

Japanese

Period

Other

Condition

Very good

Dimensions

Height: 14.6cm. (5 3/4in.)

Antique ref: U56