

Japanese Imari dish, 18th century
POA

Japanese imari dish, 18th century, decorated in the centre with a landscape vignette enclosing a pavilion, sprays of peony and chrysanthemum all below cloud scrolls, the border with shaped cartouches containing pairs of quail among reeds, against a ground of scrolling flowering foliage.

Diameter: 38.3cm. (15 1/16in.)

Condition: Very slight wear to enamels

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt and overglaze enamel decoration
Origin	Japanese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Excellent
Diameter	38.3cm. (15 1/16in.)

Antique ref: U284