

Chinese imari octagonal teapot and cover, mid-18th century POA

Chinese imari octagonal teapot and cover, mid-18th century, of baluster form with tapered waist and spreading foot, decorated in underglaze cobalt blue, overglaze enamels and gilt with eight panels outlined in blue containing flowering boughs of peony and aster issuing from rockwork, the loop handle and straight spout with florets and cloud scrolls, the domed lid of octagonal form and surmounted by a gilt knob, decorated with eight further floral cartouches.

Height: 10cm. (3 7/8in.)

Condition: Firing crack to inside of rim, firing crack to inside of body, tiny flake to spout.

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze blue and overglaze enamel decoration in the Imari palette
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Very good
Dimensions	Height: 10cm. (3 7/8in.)