

Chinese biscuit stand, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese biscuit stand, Kangxi (1662-1722), of rectangular form, enamelled in aubergine, green, yellow and white; one of the longer sides decorated with a diaper pattern and pierced with a cloud-shaped opening, the opposite side with a freely-painted monochrome landscape, with the moon rising above pine-covered mountains and a body of water in the foreground; the shorter sides with a pattern of stylised cloud scrolls in yellow and aubergine against a green ground

Dimensions:

Height: 7cm. (2 3/4 in.)

Condition:

Chip to corner of base

Material and Technique	Porcelain with enamel decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Good
Dimensions	Height: 7cm. (2 3/4 in.)

Antique ref: U704