

Large Chinese verte imari charger, late Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Large Chinese verte imari charger, late Kangxi (1662-1722), decorated in blue and overglaze red and green enamels, the centre with a flowering bough of chrysanthemum, sprouting grasses and a butterfly in flight, the cavetto with a blue diaper band interspersed with four lobed floral cartouches and single chrysanthemum heads, the flat rim with chrysanthemum, aster and a continuous trail of cloud, the rim glazed brown, the reverse with two flowering boughs. The green enamels make this dish more unusual.

Diameter: 42.8cm. (16 3/4 in.)

Material and Technique

Porcelain with enamel decoration in the imari palette

Origin

Chinese

Period

18th Century

Diameter

42.8cm. (16 3/4 in.)

Antique ref: U747