

Chinese blue and white pot and cover, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese blue and white pot and cover, Kangxi (1662-1722), the body with moulded panels containing floral and fruiting boughs including pomegranate and Buddha's fingers, below a band of beribboned 'babao', the lid with everted lip and decorated with further babao, surmounted by a knob modelled as a Dog of Fo, the base with a single artemisia leaf

Dimensions:

Height: 6 5/8in. (17 cm.)

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Dimensions	Height: 6 5/8in. (17 cm.)

Antique ref: U787