

Small German Westerwald salt-glazed tankard, circa 1700
POA

Small German Westerwald salt-glazed tankard, circa 1700, of baluster form, the manganese-glazed body decorated with incised floral and foliate scrolls, the neck ribbed, the plain loop handle pierced for a cover. For more examples see Gaimster, David, 'German Stoneware 1600-1900'.

Dimensions:

Height: 18.9cm. (7 7/16 in.)

Condition:

Chip to rim, glaze cracks.

Material and Technique	Westerwald salt-glazed pottery
Origin	German
Period	18th Century
Condition	Very good
Dimensions	Height: 18.9cm. (7 7/16 in.)