

Antique Russian bronze figure " The Archer" from the period of "Ivan The Terrible", 19 century , by Evgeniy Lanceray £5,000.00

Antique Russian bronze figure " The Archer" from the period of "Ivan The Terrible", 19 century , by Evgeniy Lanceray.

These are 19th century bronze historic sculpture depictions, by Lanceray, from the medieval period during which Ivan iv (Ivan The Terrible) was Grand Prince of Moscow from 1533 - 1547 and firstTsar of all Russia from 1547 - 1584. In 1550 Ivan created Russia's first full-time military force.

16th-century Muscovite cavalry.

Mounted archery remained an effective tactical system in open country until the introduction of repeating firearms.

Signed Lanceray in Cyrillic script with Chopin foundry mark.
Provenance:

Purchased by PJ Hurman 1st May 1977.

Dimensions:

Weight:1377 grams

Length: 15.3 cm.

Width:6.3 cm.

Height:17.2 cm.

| | |
|-------------------|--|
| Origin | Russian |
| Period | Early 1900s |
| Condition | Excellent |
| Dimensions | Dimensions: Weight:1377 grams Length: 15.3 cm. Width:6.3 cm. Height:17.2 cm. |

Antique ref: 19 century , by Evgeniy Lanceray