

Japanese Imari baluster vase and cover, 18th century
POA

Japanese Imari baluster vase and cover, 18th century, decorated in blue, red and green overglaze enamels with gilt highlights, the body with panels containing hoho birds and wisteria, and smaller panels containing stylised lotus and fleur-de-lis type leaves, all against a blue ground with large scrolling chrysanthemum heads, the shoulders with further shaped cartouches containing hoho birds and flowers, the neck with half-roundels containing peony and chrysanthemum below a geometric band in iron red; the lid similarly decorated and surmounted by a finial in the form of a karashishi

Height: 63.75cm. (25in.)

Condition:

Small chips to finial and firing crack to tail of karashishi

Material and Technique

Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue, overglaze polychrome enamel and gilt decoration

Origin

Japanese

Period

18th Century

Condition

Very good

Dimensions

Height: 63.75cm. (25in.)

Antique ref: X442