

Chinese imari barber's bowl, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese Imari barber's bowl, Kangxi (1662-1722), of circular form with wide rim, decorated in underglaze cobalt blue, overglaze iron-red enamel and gilt to the central roundel with flowers including large chrysanthemum heads amongst curling foliage and flower buds, the rim decorated with foliate sprays of chrysanthemum, peony and other assorted flowers, within blue concentric circles and a band of diaper ground in iron-red with flowerheads.

Diameter: 27.6cm. (10 7/8in.)

Condition: Shallow frits to rim.

Provenance: With label of Van Halm & Van Halm London.

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue, overglaze iron-red enamel and gilt decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Condition	Very good
Diameter	27.6cm. (10 7/8in.)

Antique ref: Y500