

French Art Deco Diamond And Platinum Bracelet, Circa 1925

£80,000.00

A French diamond and platinum Art Deco bracelet, with a diamond set repeating openwork pattern of five motifs, with an Edwardian-cut diamond set in the centre of each motif, with three Edwardian or eight-cut diamonds either side, in rub over settings, with Edwardian-cut diamonds, in grain settings, forming a surround, with Edwardian-cut and some eight-cut diamonds forming a sunray and fleur-de-llys decorative border, with millegrain edges, with foliate engraved sides and a box and tongue clasp, the tongue, being mounted in 18ct white gold, having a French eagle head mark, with French dog head marks, on the bracelet, for platinum, and a DK with a sword maker's mark, for Dimitri Kyriàzidès, circa 1925. Dimitri Kyriàzidès' punch was registered in 1910. Approximate total diamond weight, 22.00 carats.

Origin	French
Period	1920s
Style	Art Deco
Condition	Very good
Materials	Platinum
Main Gemstone	Diamond
Carat for Gold	18 K
Hallmark	French dog head and eagle head
Dimensions	Length 178mm, width 27.8mm

Antique ref: XMG3323T2