

GOLD QUARTER REPEATING FRENCH CYLINDER POCKET WATCH £3,500.00

An early 19th Century French quarter repeating cylinder with silver engine turned dial in a gold open face case. Keywind gilt bar movement with suspended going barrel. Plain cock with polished steel regulator. plain three arm gilt balance with blue steel spiral hairspring. Polished steel cylinder, steel escape wheel. Push pendant quarter repeating on two polished steel gongs. white enamel dial with Roman numerals, gold Breguet hands. Engine turned gold open face case with engine turned middle and bezels. Gold repeating push in the pendant which is pulled out and twisted a quarter of a turn before use. Wound and set through the signed gold cuvette.

An attractive small watch in the style of Breguet in excellent overall condition

Signed Derendinger a Paris
Circa 1830
Diameter 42 mm

Origin	European
Materials	Gold
Carat for Gold	18 K

Antique ref: A10246