

Large Chinese blue and white tureen, cover and stand, Qianlong (1736-95)
POA

Large Chinese blue and white tureen, cover and stand, Qianlong (1736-95), the moulded tureen and large stand decorated with a willow tree in a fenced garden amongst flowering peony and foliage; the lid and gently barbed rim of the stand with flowering lotus alternating with a pair of ducks amongst grasses, the rims of each component with bands of diaper cell; the central domed section of the lid with radiating band of large leaves and surmounted by a moulded crown finial.

Dimensions:

Diameter of tureen: 31cm. (12 3/8in.)

Condition:

Chip to foot, hairlines to finial.

|                               |  |
|-------------------------------|--|
| Material and Technique | Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration |
| Origin                 | Chinese  |
| Period                 | 18th Century                                     |
| Diameter               | Diameter of tureen: 31cm. (12 3/8in.)            |

Antique ref: Y270