

Chinese blue and white teabowl and saucer, Kangxi (1662-1722) POA

Chinese blue and white teabowl and saucer, Kangxi (1662-1722), the central roundel with a woman sitting underneath flowering blossom emerging from rockwork in a fenced garden, the wide rim with eight further women kneeling to admire flowering peony, with a geometric hatch pattern band to the rim, the reverse with precious beribboned objects (babao); the cup with ladies admiring flowers and grasses to the exterior and four-character mark to the base

Dimensions:

Diameter of cup: 6.2cm. (2 3/8in), height: 3.5cm. (1 3/8 in.) diameter of saucer: 9.7cm. (3 3/4 in.)

Condition:

Tiny frit to cup

Material and Technique	Porcelain with underglaze cobalt blue decoration
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Dimensions	Height of cup: 3.5cm. (1 3/8 in.)
Diameter	Diameter of cup: 6.2cm. (2 3/8in); diameter of saucer: 9.7cm. (3 3/4 in.)

Antique ref: W467