

Downstairs at Grays: Victorian Opal and Diamond Pendant Circa 1890-1900

£4,500.00

A very beautiful Victorian Silver and High Carat Yellow Gold (tested) Opal Pendant.

The centre stone is a "Cabochon Cut" Opal (Un-weighed), in a "Rub Over Setting" surrounded by numerous "Old Round Cut" Diamonds in a Foliate Design, five of the Diamonds are in a "Rub Over Setting" and the rest are "Claw set". All attached by two small chains to the upper section of a further smaller "Cabochon Cut" Opal which is surrounded with six "Old Round Cut" Diamonds, four are "Rub Over Set" and the rest are "Claw set".

The Silver chain is attached to both side.

Circa 1890.

Period	19th Century
Condition	Consistent with age
Materials	Silver
Main Gemstone	Opal
Main Gemstone Cut	Cabochon Cut
Secondary Gemstone	Diamond

Secondary Gemstone Cut

Old Cut

Antique ref: 4988