

Pair of Chinese famille verte tea caddies, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Pair of Chinese famille verte tea caddies, Kangxi (1662-1722), of rectangular cross-section, painted with fine enamels, one of the longer sides of each caddy decorated with a girl strolling in a fenced garden in a rocky landscape, the opposing side similarly decorated with a boy, presumably her lover; the corners with large stylised flowerheads, the sides and top edges with floral sprays.

Dimensions:

Height: 12cm. (4 3/4in.) and 11.7cm. (4 5/8in.)

Condition:

One with very small shallow frit to top edge

Material and Technique	Porcelain decorated in overglaze enamels in the famille verte palette
Origin	Chinese
Condition	Very good
Dimensions	Height: 12cm. (4 3/4in.) and 11.7cm. (4 5/8in.)

Antique ref: W663