

Pair of Chinese famille-verte hexagonal salts, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Pair of Chinese famille-verte hexagonal salts, Kangxi (1662-1722), of waisted form, the sides decorated with panels containing flowers and an assortment of scholarly objects, the underside of the rims with ruyi heads, the wells with further scholarly objects including archaic vessels with feathers and coral, scrolls and weiqi boards, surrounded by an inner band of flowerheads against a cracked-ice ground and a band of floral green stippled ground with six cartouches containing flowers and beribboned babao.

Condition: One with chip to footrim and shallow frits, the other with two chips to footrim, one chip to underside of the upper rim and shallow frits

Material and Technique	Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration in the famille verte palette
Origin	Chinese
Dimensions	Height: 5.5cm. (2 1/8 in.)
Diameter	Diameter: 9.5cm. (3 3/4 in.);