

Chinese famille verte moulded dish, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Chinese famille verte moulded dish, Kangxi (1662-1722), decorated to the central roundel with a dignitary seated within a rock garden before a screen painted with a mountainous landscape, attended by two guards and a scholar who has presented him with a wrapped gift; the cavetto with landscape panels against a floral green stippled ground with the four flowers of the seasons, the rim with four cartouches containing scholarly objects against a ground of red scrolls; the reverse with three floral sprays and central artemisia leaf within concentric circles.

Diameter: 27.5cm. (10 13/16in.)

Condition: Broken in half and neatly restored

Material and Technique	Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration in the famille verte palette
Origin	Chinese
Diameter	27.5cm. (10 13/16in.)

Antique ref: V9