

Chinese famille-verte charger, Kangxi (1668-1722)

POA

Chinese famille-verte charger, Kangxi (1668-1722), with gently barbed rim, decorated with a central ruyi-head roundel containing a basket of flowers, surrounded by eight variously shaped cartouches containing flowers including peony, orchid, prunus and chrysanthemum issuing from rockwork, against a green stippled ground scattered with stylised lotus heads, the rim with six further cartouches containing fruiting boughs, against various green floral cell grounds with large ruyi heads, the reverse with four peony sprays and an artemisia leaf within concentric circles to the base.

Diameter: 37.8cm. (14 7/8 in.)

Condition: One short hair crack and one restored crack.

Material and Technique	Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration in the famille verte palette
Origin	Chinese
Condition	Good
Diameter	37.8cm. (14 7/8 in.)

Antique ref: V790