www.graysantiques.co.uk

Pair of Chinese famille verte 'pie-crust rim' meat dishes, Kangxi (1662-1722)
POA

Pair of Chinese famille verte 'pie-crust rim' meat dishes, Kangxi (1662-1722), decorated in the centre with two birds in flight amongst large peony heads, and a cricket sitting on curling foliage, the cavettos with a narrow band of ruyi heads in iron red, the rims with four cartouches containing flowers and perching birds against a green stippled ground strewn with magnolia and leaves, all within moulded 'pie-crust' rims, the reverse with four large sprays of peony.

Material and Technique	Porcelain with overglaze enamel decoration in the famille verte palette
Origin	Chinese
Diameter	44.2cm. (17 3/8in.)

Antique ref: X735