

French Tortoise Brooch in 18ct Gold with Diamonds & Plique-à-Jour Enamel | c.1960s
POA

A French brooch in the form of a tortoise, made in the 1960s and set in 18ct gold.

Its shell is finished in green plique-à-jour enamel - luminous and finely patterned - while the limbs and head are accented with diamonds.

Hallmarked with the French eagle's head and maker's mark.

Measures approximately 4cm x 3cm.

Beautifully made and full of character - a rare example of mid-century French craftsmanship in both enamel and form.

Available exclusively at ELTONS, Grays Antique Market, Mayfair, London.
