

Victorian 18kt gold hand - painted enamel cherub brooch £1,650.00

A fine 18kt gold brooch from the Victorian era, circa 1880s, featuring a beautifully hand-painted enamel portrait of a cherub. The brooch's intricate design includes a detailed enamel depiction set within a delicately crafted gold border showcasing Victorian craftsmanship.

Specifications:

Material: 18kt Yellow Gold

Enamel Detail: Hand-painted portrait of a cherub with vibrant, detailed colors

Dimensions: 4 cm x 3.4 cm

Weight: 8 grams

Design Details:

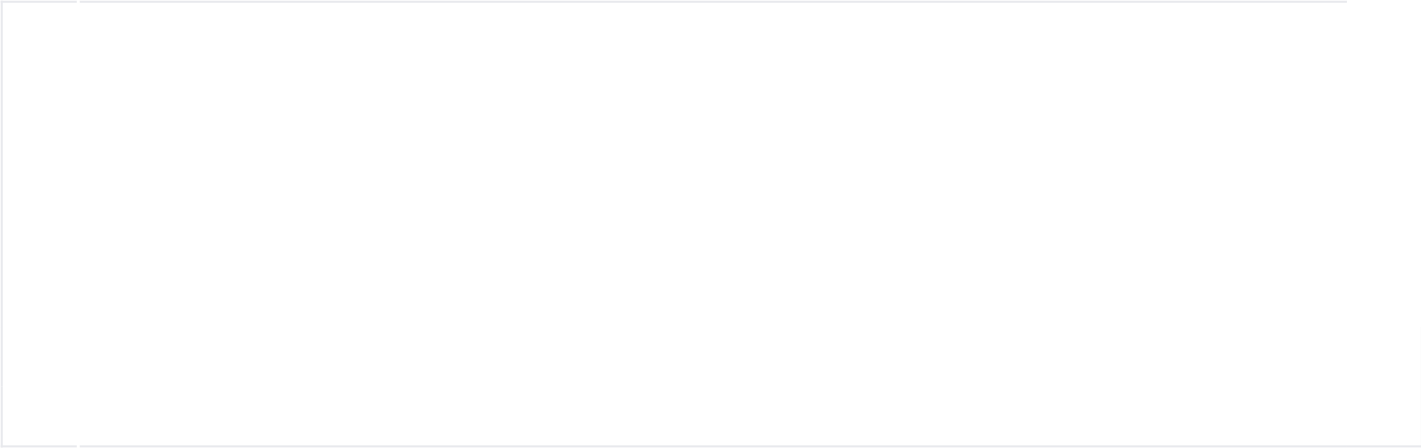

The enamel painting displays exceptional artistry, with lifelike features and rich tones bringing the cherub to life. The surrounding gold frame is finely detailed with ornate patterns that complement the enamel centerpiece, adding depth and character to the piece.

Era:

This brooch is a quintessential example of Victorian jewelry, reflecting the era's fascination with sentimental themes and meticulous craftsmanship. Such pieces were often used to symbolize affection or as a treasured keepsake.

Condition:

The brooch is in good antique condition, with the enamel painting intact and vivid. The gold frame shows minimal wear, consistent with its age, and retains its original finish.

Origin	European Other
Period	Pre 1900
Style	Victorian
Condition	Good
Materials	Gold
Carat for Gold	18 K

Antique ref: Victorian 18kt gold hand - painted enamel cherub brooch