

Etruscan Revival Bangle | Floral & Ropework Detailing in 15ct Gold | Chester 1867 POA

An antique Etruscan Revival bangle in 15ct gold, hallmarked for Chester, 1867.

The surface is defined by a finely executed band of applied granulation, ropework, and deeply stamped rosette and fan motifs, all consistent with the mid-Victorian fascination with classical goldwork.

The design is symmetrical, detailed and well-proportioned, showing a high level of technical skill.

It is built with a solid hinge, push clasp and its original safety chain.

The bangle measures 5.7cm inner diameter and 2cm wide, ideal for a medium wrist.

A rare and beautiful design.
