

Japanese Imari bowl and cover, c.1700, Edo period
POA

Japanese Imari bowl and cover, c.1700, Edo period, the body and lid decorated with leafy branches of hydrangea issuing from rockwork in a fenced garden, with concentric blue circles, the lid surmounted by a finial with small moulded prunus flowers.

Condition: Damage to finial, frit to underside of cover

Material and Technique	Porcelain with moulded porcelain handle to cover, decorated with enamels and gilt in the Imari palette
Origin	Japanese
Period	18th Century
Diameter	11.9cm. (4 13/16in.)

Antique ref: K880