

Chinese crackle glaze vase converted into a lamp £600.00

A Chinese crackle glaze vase with mythical elephant head handles and lion dog borders, converted into a lamp.

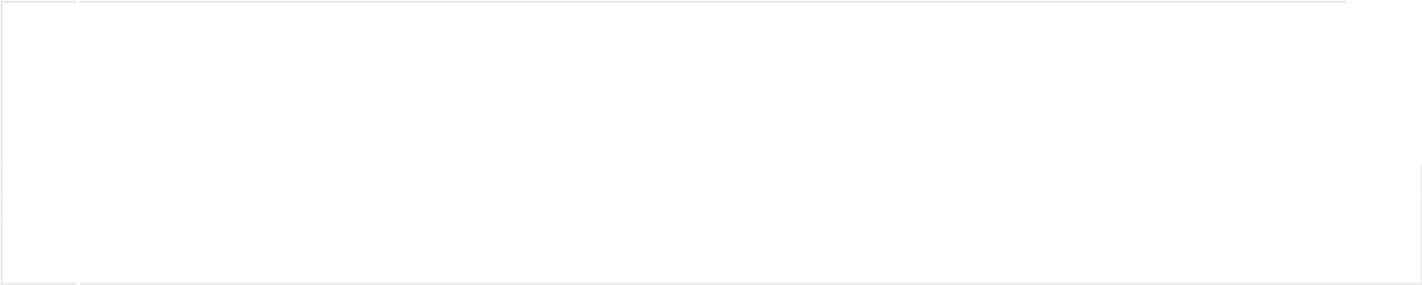

The vase is signed Ming, but it is not of the period. It is not unusual for the Chinese to make vases in past styles and put the period mark as a way of labelling the style.

Height with lamp - 42cm

Condition Report:

Good condition, the vase has been drilled and the lamp needs rewiring, this should be a simple job for and electrician.
