

Aquamarine Pendant in 18ct Gold, 7.6ct | c.1950s POA

A beautifully cut 7.6ct aquamarine drop, set in 18ct gold and suspended from a fine platinum chain.

Made in England, c.1950s, the design is simple, refined, and perfectly weighted.

The stone is cool in tone, with clean facets and soft depth of colour.

The platinum chain measures 46cm, and the pendant hangs at 3cm, just long enough to catch the light.

This elegant drop shape was a favourite in 1950s jewellery, and still feels effortlessly chic today.
