

Edwardian Carnelian Scarab ring with Pearl Halo c1900 £975.00

A British scarab ring, c.1900s, set with a carved carnelian and a halo of seed pearls. The scarab is finely cut, its surface smooth and luminous, framed by softly toned natural pearls. The band is made in 9ct gold - delicate, balanced, and easy to wear.

Symbolic and quietly striking, it blends Edwardian refinement with ancient iconography.

Available exclusively at E L T O N S, Grays Antique Market, Mayfair, London.
