

Lion's Head Brooch-Pendant by Asprey | Sterling Silver Gilt & Bakelite | British Art Deco c.1930s

POA

A striking Art Deco brooch and pendant by Asprey, crafted circa 1930s, featuring a dramatic lion's head motif.

The bold design is rendered in rich phenolic resin (Bakelite), mounted with gilded sterling silver detailing, and marked "Asprey STERLING."

Measuring approximately 8cm x 8cm, the piece makes a strong statement - equally impressive when worn as a brooch or as a pendant suspended from a chain or ribbon.

Supplied with its original Asprey box, adding exceptional provenance and collectible appeal.

A rare surviving example of luxury Deco design from one of Britain's most prestigious jewellers, embodying the spirit, glamour, and power of the period.

In excellent condition.

Available exclusively at E L T O N S, Grays Antique Market, Mayfair, London.
