£2,750.00

Peridot, a vibrant green gemstone, has a rich history spanning thousands of years, with its origins linked to ancient civilizations and folklore. It was prized by the Ancient Egyptians, who mined it on St. John's Island (Zabargad) in the Red Sea and believed it protected against evil and nightmares. Peridot was also thought to be the "gem of the sun" due to its unique glow, and some even believed it glowed in the dark.
