

Unoaerre Sapphire Bracelet | 18ct Gold | Italy c.1960s POA

A richly decorative bracelet by Unoaerre, crafted in Italy in the 1960s from solid 18ct yellow gold.

The bracelet is formed of articulated pierced links, each one intricately designed with scrolling openwork that flows seamlessly around the wrist.

Set throughout with approximately 3.8 carats of natural, unheated sapphires, likely Burmese, the design strikes a perfect balance between movement, light, and colour.

The sapphires are scattered like starlight across the ornate goldwork, adding vivid blue flashes without overwhelming the sculptural detail.

It's a piece that feels both romantic and confident, designed to be worn and admired.

Signed Unoaerre, one of Italy's most respected goldsmiths of the mid-20th century.

Length: 19cm

Width: 1cm
