

Downstairs in Grays: A fine panel of Late 18th Century Silk & Wool Aubusson Tapestry, mounted on later Dupion Silk with braided border. Panel French Circa 1760.

£1,380.00

A fine panel of Late 18th Century hand-woven silk & wool Aubusson tapestry, mounted as a hanging and framed by a later dupion silk mount and edged with a braided border.

A tree top and shaded foliate design; an extract (at some point,) saved from a larger piece.

A Velcro receipt has been fitted to the top of the reverse (for hanging purposes).

Over-all: 152 cm x 37.5 cml.

Panel minimum of 137 cm x 24.5 cm.

Condition commensurate with age, some minor earlier repairs and restorations.

Panel French, Circa 1760.

Origin	French
Period	18th Century
Condition	Consistent with age

