This Rolex Datejust 16220 is presented exceptionally well and complete in fine working order too! We have chosen to leave unpolished however the watch has been through the workshop running at +4 seconds per day.

36mm stainless steel case with the steel engine turned bezel the dial on this Datejust is stunning with a natural patina to the silver dial giving a champagne hue.

Fitted to Rolex Jubilee bracelet with double fold clasp to fit a wrist up to 17.5cm with 2 spare links included. Inner and outer box, manual, swing tag, wallet, calendar and original warranty papers dating the watch to 1989 by the first time it was sold. The Serial number is L25XXXX with the papers stamped UK.

Automatic movement powered by calibre 3135 giving a power reserve of up to 42 hours. Sapphire scratch resistant crystal.

Condition - We have purposely left unpolished so will show minor blemishes and light scratches however dial is clean as is crystal. Can be polished upon request. We would still consider this watch to be in excellent original condition for a watch of this age as it retains all its edges.

Our View - All about the dial with this watch and the fact it has everything accompanying it. A real collectors piece in our view.
