Cartier Tank Basculante 2386 | Stainless Steel | Quartz | Flip Case | Cartier Buckle

A refined and rare piece from the Cartier archives, the Tank Basculante 2386 is one of the most intriguing interpretations of the iconic Tank family — with its clever reversible (flip) case and elegant vintage proportions. This model is powered by a reliable quartz movement and comes with a new generic blue lizard strap and Cartier signed deployment buckle.

Our View

The Cartier Tank Basculante is one of the most innovative and lesser-seen executions of the Tank concept, with a flipping case that pays homage to the Reverso. Slim, stylish, and mechanically charming — this is a great entry point into vintage Cartier collecting, especially at this price point and with the original clasp included.
