

Piqué Pendant with Geometric Gold & Silver Inlay | Victorian c.1880s POA

An unusual Victorian piqué pendant from the 1880s, crafted in dark tortoiseshell with fine gold and silver inlay. The front features a striking geometric design of hexagons and lozenges.

On the reverse is a simple glazed locket compartment, framed in gold for a keepsake or photo.

Measuring 3.5cm across and 5.5cm high including the loop, it's beautifully shaped with understated piqué detailing.
