

A CHINESE BLUE AND WHITE VASE POA

Of rouleau form, the cylindrical body set with a tall neck rising to an everted lip, decorated in vibrant shades of underglaze blue, painted with a design of a kylin perching on a low table and surrounded by auspicious objects including scrolls, coins and chimes, and a decorative screen depicting crashing waves, alongside a vase enclosing peacock feathers and a censer, the neck decorated with decorative bands of triangle work, spiral work, and circles, the glazed base with a double circle in underglaze blue.

Origin	Chinese
Period	17th Century
Hallmark	Height: 20cm; 7 ¾ ins

Antique ref: BJ38