1970s fashion was a decade of diverse and evolving styles, influenced by the hippie movement, disco culture, and the rise of new fabrics like polyester. Early 70s fashion carried over hippie styles from the late 60s, such as bell-bottoms, maxi dresses, and peasant blouses. As the decade progressed, disco fashion brought glamour with shimmering fabrics, platform shoes, and fitted silhouettes. Punk rock, emerging in the late 70s, challenged the status quo with ripped clothing, safety pins, and a more rebellious aesthetic.

In my opinion fashion and jewellery are joined. (Lilly)
