

Selection of Pre-Loved Pendants from SHAPIRO & Co since 1979 POA

Choosing pre-loved reduces the demand for newly mined materials and lowers the environmental impact.

Pre-loved jewellery, also known as second-hand or vintage jewellery, has a rich history intertwined with social, cultural, and economic shifts. Its appeal lies in the unique stories, craftsmanship, and sustainability it offers, as opposed to solely focusing on new pieces.

Older pieces often showcase exceptional craftsmanship and techniques that are no longer widely used.

Pre-loved jewellery can be more affordable, especially for high-quality or unique pieces
