

Large Chinese blue and white bowl, Kangxi(1662-1722) POA

Large Chinese blue and white bowl, Kangxi(1662-1722) foliate rim and moulded panels painted in a bright undeglaze blue, the upper register with scholars and attendants above lotus shape moulded panels decorated with flowers, the interior with a central roundel with a scholar the border with scholarly attributes and floral branches. Marked with an apocryphal six-character Chinghua mark.

Dimensions:

D 22 cm, H 10 cm

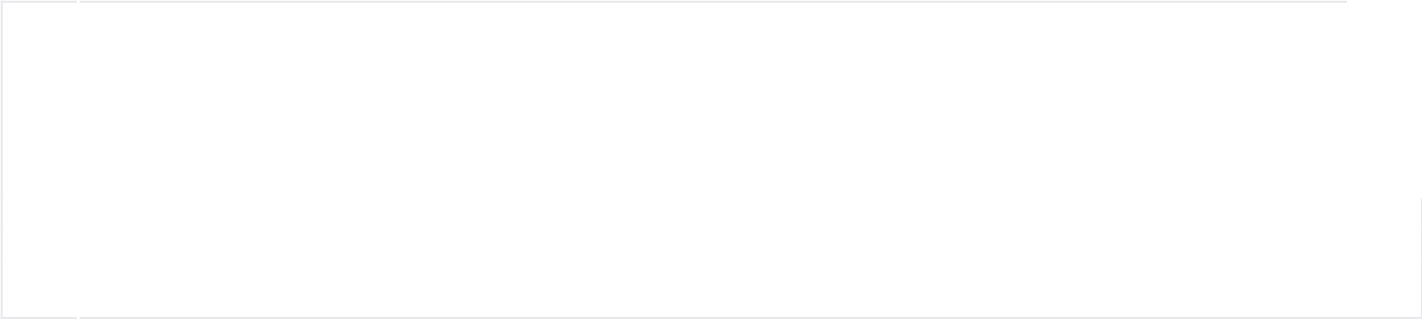

Condition:

small frits

Notes:

The property of a Dutch nobleman. Provenance: Johannes Bieruma Oosting (1842-1902) and his wife Cornelia Charlotte Brantsma (1848-1894), by descent to their daughter Agatha Victoria Bieruma Oosting (1875-1968). And by descent to the present owner.

Material and Technique	Porcelain
Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century

Condition	Good
-----------	------

Antique ref: AA9