

Art Deco “Day & Night” Necklace POA

Timeless. Bold. Exquisite. This Art Deco “Day & Night” necklace is a masterful tribute to duality—where architectural precision meets organic beauty in a design that transitions seamlessly from sunrise to starlight.

By day, a vivid natural emerald, hand-selected for its exceptional clarity and verdant hue, radiates vitality and power. It is bezel-set in a geometric platinum mount, accented with fine milgrain and angular symmetry—a nod to the daring elegance of the Art Deco era.

As night falls, a luminous, natural saltwater pearl—perfectly round and of rare quality—takes center stage. Suspended in a platinum crescent, its ethereal glow evokes moonlight on still water, offering a serene counterbalance to the emerald’s intensity.

Each pendant glides on a hand-finished platinum chain, meticulously set with pavé diamonds that shimmer with every movement—discreet in daylight, dazzling after dusk. Worn individually or layered together, the necklace adapts to the rhythm of your day, embodying refinement at every hour.

Antique ref: 0047