

Set of Three 18ct Gold Gemstone Bracelets POA

A striking trio from the golden age of mid-century design, these three 18ct gold bracelets are each adorned with a unique gemstone: natural rubies, rare Montana sapphires, and elegant square-cut diamonds. Crafted circa 1960, the set captures the refined glamour of the era, blending bold colour with timeless sophistication.

Each bracelet stands beautifully on its own, yet worn together, they create a harmonious statement of luxury and individuality. The warm glow of gold highlights the richness of the rubies, the cool blue of the Montana sapphires, and the precise brilliance of the diamonds.

A rare and collectible suite—perfect for the discerning collector or as a versatile heirloom set that transitions effortlessly from day to evening.
