Rolex Lady Datejust 69173 Buckley Dial – 26mm Steel & Gold

A fine example of the Rolex Lady Datejust 69173 Buckley Dial, dated to 1987/88 and powered by the reliable Rolex 2135 automatic movement. This watch features the much sought-after Jubilee Anniversary Dial — Ivory with the Rolem emblem discreetly over the dial and bold gold coloured number hour markers to match the hands.

The 26mm stainless steel case is fitted with a sharp, fluted 18ct yellow gold bezel and matching gold crown. Left unpolished to retain its original lines, the case remains in excellent condition. The scratch-resistant sapphire crystal is unblemished.

Fitted to the original Rolex steel and yellow gold jubilee bracelet with double-fold clasp, fitting a wrist up to 17cm. Recently serviced and running at +3/4 seconds per day, the watch is pressure tested to 30m and offered with a 12-month guarantee.
