

Vintage Canadian 14 Carat Gold Box, Circa 1935 £7,000.00

A vintage, 14ct gold box, with four, engine turned sides, alternating with a ribbon and wreath pattern on the cut corners, terminating with reeded bars called "ribbon and reed" pattern, with superimposed crosses, with a polished, hinged lid, stamped 585 for 14ct gold with a Canadian C, surrounding a crown mark, which came into use in 1934, for items manufactured in Canada also with Czechoslovakian import marks, featuring a lyre, with a c above, which was in use between 1929 and 1940, circa 1935.

Material and Technique	14ct gold
Origin	Other
Period	1930s
Style	Classical
Condition	Good
Hallmark	C with a crown, 1934 act of Parliament, created a national mark, which may be affixed to to works entirely manufactured in Canada.
Dimensions	Length 78mm, width 38mm, depth 21.8mm. 51.22 grams