

Diamond & 18ct Gold Square Panel Ring | Art Deco c.1920s POA

An elegant Art Deco ring dating to the 1920s, designed with a bold square panel set with approximately 1.1 carats of old European cut diamonds. Each diamond is finely millegrained and arranged in a distinctive chequerboard layout, with classic Deco stepped shoulders that frame the design perfectly.

Crafted in platinum over 18 carat yellow gold and hallmarked accordingly, the ring displays the exceptional craftsmanship of English jewellers of the period.

The diamonds are bright and well matched, graded around H-I colour and VS clarity.
