

Triple Cluster Diamond & 18ct Gold Ring | Edwardian c.1910 POA

A magnificent Edwardian diamond ring, c.1910, designed as a triple cluster of old cut diamonds totalling approximately 1.80 carats. The three principal stones are framed by smaller antique cuts in softly domed finely millegrained platinum settings.

The band is crafted in 18 carat yellow gold, detailed with elegant carved shoulders, and hallmarked accordingly. Bright and lively, the diamonds are graded around I colour and VS clarity.

Ring size P, resizable.
