

Diamond Daisy Cluster Ring in 18ct Gold | Edwardian c.1910 POA

A charming Edwardian diamond daisy cluster ring, crafted in England circa 1910, featuring a central old European cut diamond encircled by ten smaller old cuts, forming a radiant flower motif typical of the period.

The cluster is platinum topped enhancing the brilliance of the stones, set on a slender 18ct yellow gold band, with delicate millegrain detail and an open gallery showcasing fine craftsmanship and grace of the Edwardian era.
