Cartier Must de Cartier 5057001 – Black Dial – 1993

A refined and elegant Cartier Must de Cartier reference 5057001, presented with a travel pouch. Beautifully restored with a new crystal and fresh gold plating, this is one of the more desirable and harder-to-find Must de Cartier variants.

Featuring a striking black dial with Roman numerals, this classic unisex Cartier perfectly captures the timeless Parisian style that has made the Must collection increasingly collectable.

Our View

The Must de Cartier collection remains one of the most collectible vintage Cartier ranges, offering iconic Cartier styling in a format that remains both wearable and affordable compared to the brand's solid gold models.

This example is particularly attractive thanks to its rare black Roman numeral dial, and recent restoration. The subtle spidering to the dial adds character and authenticity without detracting from its overall appearance.

Elegant, distinctive and increasingly difficult to find in this specification.
